Dear Bride and Groom:

Your wedding day is your day to promenade - it's your ceremony, your party and no one else's. Will you remember every detail with the absolute delight it deserves or will there be strong regret?

All too often, many couples fall into the "regret" category for wedding memories due to one or more of the following that left them numb... too much stress because of inner-party quarreling, power struggles, and physical, mental and emotional issues. In retrospect, they wish they could simply go back and do it all over again, this time using the help of an efficient Wedding Specialist.

A Wedding Specialist can reduce or eliminate most stress to the bride and groom by bearing the burden of the planning, organizing and mediating and can sometimes save the couple enough financially to cover the cost of their services.

Getting married is a life changing event and should be a special, memorable day for the bridal couple. Usually they are passionate about their wedding plans and expectations, wanting everyone involved to be:

- Stress-free and Relaxed
- Happy and Cooperative
- Organized and On Time
- Confident and Willing
- Informed and Capable

At Weddings Pro Passione we recognize that you are special and deserve the wedding of your plans and expectations, so we are as passionate as you about achieving the goals mentioned above, and helping you promenade in perfection.

You can trust us to help you get as close as possible to the wedding you desire and deserve. Equally, we are committed to making it your wedding, not ours... Just tell us what you want.

Whether those in the wedding party are employed part-time, full time, or not at all, or intend to give all they have to the wedding planning process, call us for a free consultation and let us show you how we can help you regardless of your budget. We can help you promenade for a day as king and queen, and remember it forever with absolute delight.
Sincerely,

Kathleen Dryden
